Let's take the day to explore lovely Lugano filled with Italian flair along with much Swiss charm. Stroll the festive old city center past wooden stands of the city's Christmas market offering local goodies and artisan crafts, perhaps pop into a museum or two, or take in the picturesque lake views on the promenade. Day 4. Beautiful Bellinzona is only a short train ride away where its three castles make it feel as if we were catapulted back to the Middle Ages among a world of knights and drawbridges. Lucky for us, Castel Grande, the largest of the three, perched on a rocky peak overlooking the valley is open for a visit. Step inside and experience the museum that contains 6500 years of human presence on the hill, covering the period from the first Neolithic village to the 20th century. There's much to explore in the warm, enchanting atmosphere of the town including Bellinzona's Christmas Village where the Piazza del Sole comes alive with music, scents, and twinkling lights of the season. Another festive Ticino village that sparkles with Christmas magic is loveable Locarno set among luminous Lago Maggiore. Palm and lemon trees lining the lakeside path will be twinkling with lights and a wander through the tangle of alleyways of Old Town lead to cheery piazzas and decorated palazzos. Piazza Grande will be transformed into Locarno's Winterland with stalls selling handmade decorations and roasted locally grown chestnuts, leaving a warm, spiced scent in the air. If you're up for a panoramic adventure, hop on the aerial cableway leading to Cardada Cimetta above the center of Locarno and take in the spellbinding 360-degree views from the striking Passerelle observation platform.
