

Ladies of Liberty Hall

One Day Tour ~ Wednesday, November 18, 2026

Discover a treasure trove of American history among the walls of a revolutionary home that transformed into a 50-room mansion. A specialized guided tour through the Liberty Hall Museum will reveal fascinating stories about all the incredible women who lived and labored at this historic home. From the daughter of Governor Livingston whose daring exploits saved Liberty Hall during the Revolutionary War to Mary Alice Barney Kean who worked tirelessly for preservation of historic structures to Abbe, an enslaved woman who attempted to self-emancipate while in Paris, we'll learn the important roles in history these wonderful women played in both our community and in our nation. After sit down and relax for a bite to eat at a great local spot (included). Now it's time to discover a hidden treasure in our own backyard. Can you believe the fifth largest cathedral in North America is right around the corner? Step inside the amazing Basilica Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, a French Gothic Revival beauty that's roughly the size of Westminster Abbey and towers as tall as Notre Dame. Have a quiet wander through its intricately designed spaces and you can't miss the largest pipe organ ever built by Schantz Organ Co. © 2026 The Educated Wanderer
